

Subject: Positive Progress in the Handwriting Recovery Program

Kia ora [Parent/Whānau Name],

I'm writing with some good news about [Student Name]'s progress in the Handwriting Recovery Program.

Over the past [number of weeks], we've noticed that [Student Name]:

- Is more confident about their handwriting
- Is putting stronger effort into the practice missions
- Is showing clear improvement in areas like [neater letters / better spacing / writing faster and more clearly]

In class, this is starting to show as:

- [e.g. More readable work in books and tests]
- [e.g. Getting written work finished more often / more easily]

We're really pleased with how [Student Name] is engaging with the program.

A simple way to support them at home is to praise their effort, not just how their writing looks, and to notice when their writing is easier to read.

Thank you for your ongoing support – it makes a real difference.

If you'd like more detail about their progress, please feel free to get in touch.

Ngā mihi,
